Lin Finitly in Holding On a Fringes of Infinity Novella

In the brief time after Lin Finitly And Her Mayhem Rising and before Lin Finitly And The Words Unspoken, Lin sits in her car with her best friend, Gabby. Lin has left her life behind, and after racing west for hours, a growing uneasiness compelled her to stop. She'd mastered her mayhem and had finally shown that she was strong enough to face the realities of her life. So Gabriel became real again and restored all her memories of them together for the last thirty-plus years.

As Lin and Gabriel talk in her Temptation, in a deserted rest area under a bright midnight moon, she recounts the milestones of her life: her childhood in Pennsylvania and St. Simons Island; the time when her mayhem first erupted; the day she met Jack; the day she fell in love with Nomad; even the traumatic moment when Gabriel arrived.
